Celebrating Ten Years in Papua New Guinea

It has been ten years since Andrew first came to serve as a motorcycle and small engines mechanic in Papua New Guinea. We found one photo from each year that he's been here:

Soon after arriving in Ukarumpa in 2002, Andrew helped fix the bridge in our nearest town.

In 2003, he rode to the coast for the Christmas break.

Andrew did an urgent roadside repair while visiting Bougainville in 2004.

In 2005, he became interested in a young woman who had arrived from the UK to teach missionary kids.

In 2006 we celebrated 50 years of our organisation working to translate scripture in PNG.

In 2007 Andrew acquired a wife, a house and a dog!

Volunteer firecrew training in 2008.

By 2009, Levi was helping us support one of our colleagues working out in a remote village!

In 2010, we were on staff at the Pacific Orientation Course.

By 2011, Andrew had a junior apprentice...and another one on the way!

Finally, here we all are in 2012. We're so grateful for your support over the last ten years. We thank God for his provision to us, and look to him to continue to provide for all our needs.
